ROLE SUMMARY:

Are you passionate about training and developing others? Do you have experience in Project Management that you'd love to pass on? If so, we have an exciting opportunity for you!

The Events, Enterprise and Employability Department at Leeds City College is a vibrant area with an exceptional and successful reputation for delivering apprenticeships. We are seeking an outstanding Assessor to plan, deliver and assess the Level 4 Project Management Apprenticeship.

If you are experienced in Project Management and are interested and passionate about supporting the training and development of others, we encourage you to apply for this exciting job opportunity. The successful candidate will work closely with a range of employers to ensure that our apprentices receive the highest level of training within Project Management and must hold a minimum of a Level 4 PMQ or specialist qualification in this chosen specialist subject.

We are seeking a highly motivated individual in Project Management, to dive into the work of apprenticeships. The job role will include; planning, coordinating, assessing and reviewing the learning activities associated with learners in the workplace. Deliver training and conduct training and assessment covering skills and competencies as appropriate on and off site as required to facilitate timely or relevant success of students and provide a wide range of training solutions based on employer needs. The post holder will be allocated a caseload of students with a responsibility to ensure that the College meets its contractual commitments.

In return, we offer a rewarding role where you can share your expertise to shape the next generation of Project Managers. If you want to inspire apprentices to succeed, we would love to hear from you.
